The urban ride features St. Louis neighborhoods, including Soulard, Lafayette Park, Tower Grove Park and the Central West End. The route also includes a stop at the Velodrome, where daring riders are encouraged to take a spin.

The ride begins at Anheuser-Busch Brewery in Soulard and travels flat terrain with moderate hills.

Trailnet members can ride for $8. Non-members pay $13. Children ride for $3.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m. and ends at 10 a.m.
